

Make hybrid “work” everywhere

2023 product update

Mantas Gabriolavicius
Baltic Sales Manager

Hybrid is here to stay.

But the reality is that hybrid is not working for everyone.

Hybrid work brings more challenges.

The reality of hybrid work: Location changes everything

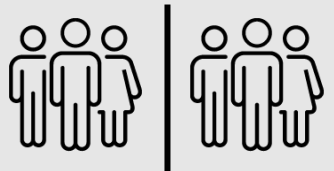

We all collaborate in various and sometimes complicated scenarios

One-to-One

One-to-Many

Many-to-Many

In the office

Multiple locations with varying equipment

At home

Quiet & well equipped

Hoteling desk

Shared space & noisy

Make hybrid “work” everywhere

77%
of end users
prefer a hybrid work model (home and office) and
need productive setups
in both places.¹

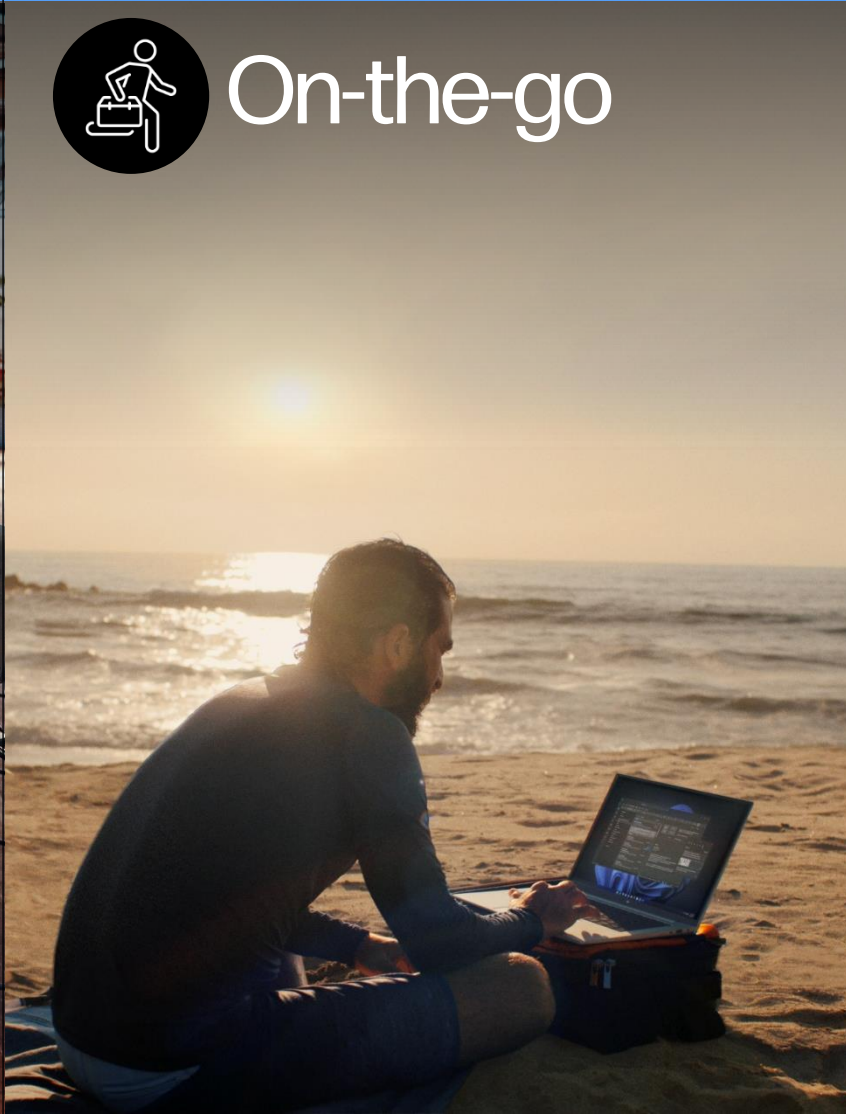

HP innovations for hybrid

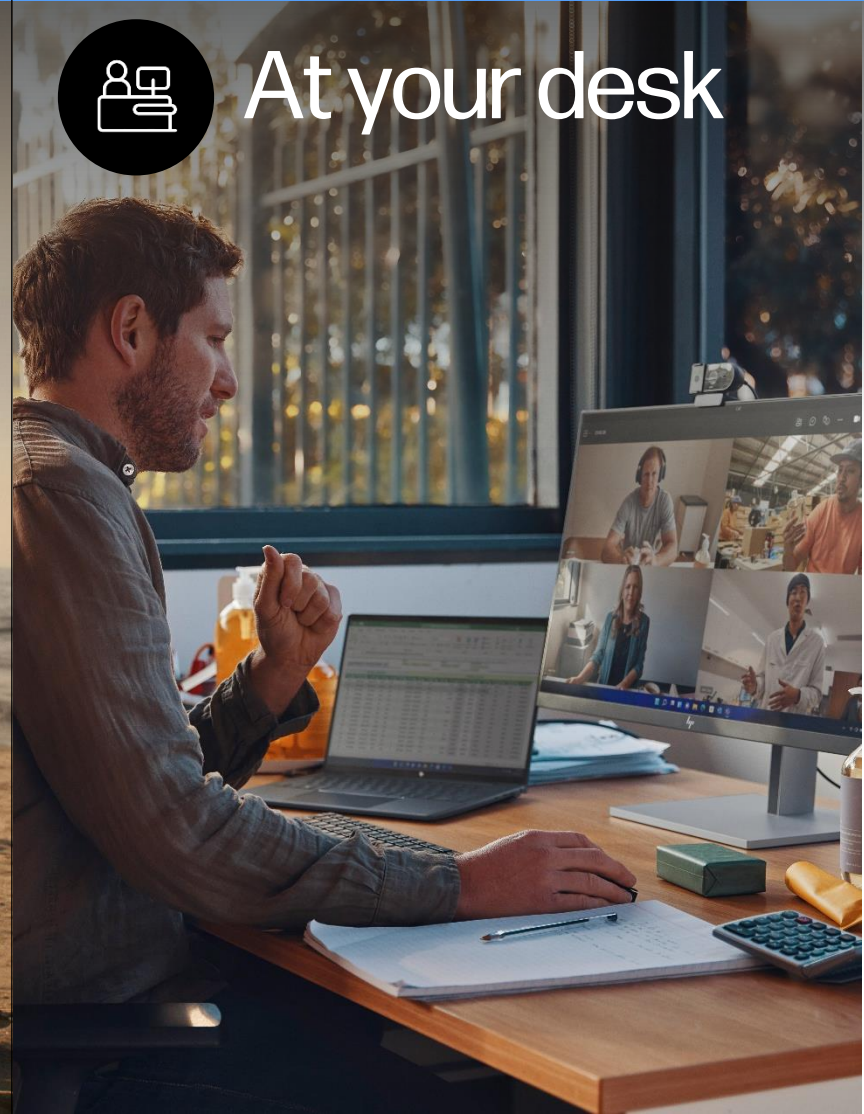

Meeting room

On-the-go

At your desk

Collaborating and thriving in hybrid work

Means putting your best foot forward, every time, from your anywhere office

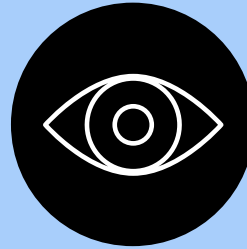

Hear and be heard

Break free from your desk with consistent audio volume and quality, and keep yours and their background noise in the background

See and be seen

Leave a lasting impression showing off your work and yourself, at the right angle, simultaneously in any lighting condition

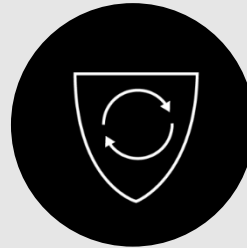

Work comfortably for ultimate productivity

Working comfortably in hybrid is king. Get up and stretch, move around, or step away without disrupting your flow or call.

Keep your guard up

Keep you and your data safe with a PC or monitor (with pop up webcam) that knows when you step away and return and uses your face as a password

Flexibility for working on the go

Hybrid work journey

2021 - 2022

Working from home
Employees have curated a productive workspace at home.

2022 - 2023

Office soft opening
Dusty, outdated office tech leads to employee frustration. We weren't productive.

2023 - 2024

Hybrid recalibration
Recharging both home & office workspaces, and everywhere in between
